

FRESH PERSPECTIVE

Tropical textures and earthy hues enliven a family home with whimsy and personality.

WRITTEN BY CHRISTINE DEORIO | PHOTOGRAPHY BY JEANNE CANTO

Interior Design: Maggie Cruz, Maggie Cruz Interior Design

CB2's Foley chairs surround an Eichholtz dining table on an Anthropologie rug. The artworks, an Art Basel find, counter a Lindsey Adelman Studio Drop System chandelier, Generation Lighting's Contour lamp rests on Maggie Cruz Home's Valentina buffet.

Above: The family room's Ethnicraft coffee table holds court in front of Maggie Cruz Home's Isla sideboard. Design Within Reach's roomy Kelston sectional offers a comfortable gathering spot for movie nights.

Opposite: In the breakfast area, Secto Design's 4201 pendants from Lightology preside over Ethnicraft's Circle table and Design Within Reach's About A Chair 12 side chairs. Loopy by Zoe Bios Creative decorates a nearby wall.

“THE CLIENTS
HOPED TO MAKE A STATEMENT,
AND THEY WERE WILLING TO TAKE
RISKS AND BE A
LITTLE FUNKY.”

—MAGGIE CRUZ

“You see the sky, waterway and trees,” designer Maggie Cruz says of the primary bedroom’s curved window wall, softened with Fabricut draperies. Norwalk Furniture armchairs and a CB2 side table face an Arteriors sofa holding pillows featuring Holland & Sherry and CW Stockwell fabrics.